Sets him- self afire to warm up

A stunt coordinator joked he set himself on fire to break a World record because it was a cold day.

"I didn't manage to find a better solution to get warm," Filip Krišnik (Slovenia) quipped about setting the title for longest duration full body burn handstand.

He held his legs above his head while engulfed in flames for an impressive 47 seconds when he took on the challenge in Vienna, Austria.

The 35-year-old gymnast, who works in the movie industry, says he got into fire stunts quite spontaneously.

For this record, he worked alongside friend and fellow stuntman and record holder Josef Tidlina, who holds titles including longest duration full body burn (5 min 41 sec) and fastest 200 m cycle during a full body burn (49.55 sec).

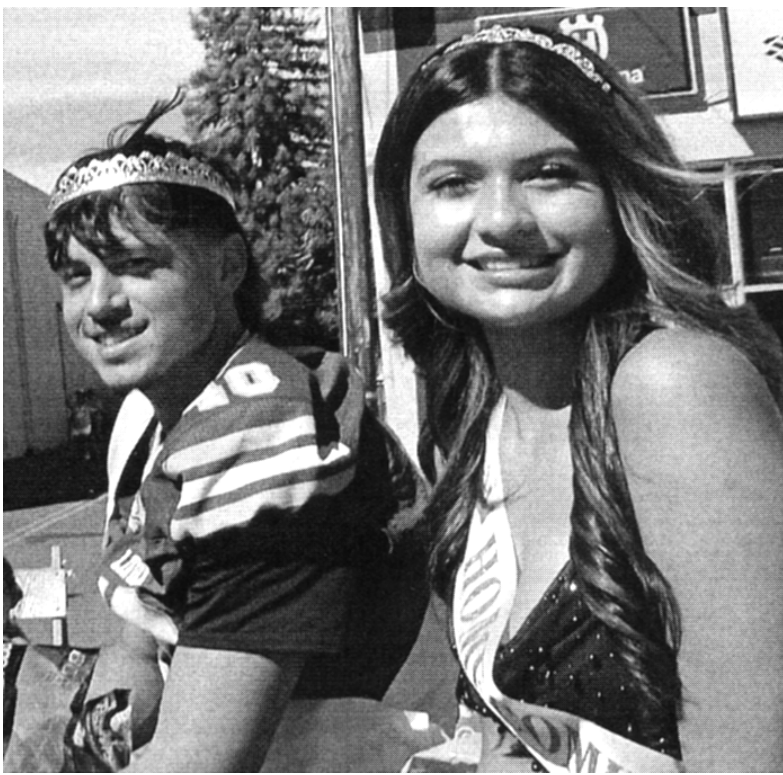

When asked how dangerous the stunt he performed was, Filip said: "If you prepare, train and rehearse it right, it shouldn't be dangerous at all means."

As a gymnast, he's performed a handstand around 10,000 times, he estimates. But he probably hasn't been on fire for many of them.

While it should really go without saying, it's important to point out that this kind of stunt should absolutely only be attempted by trained professionals and that Filip had many people standing by with fire extinguishers in hand, ready to step in if any-

A biographer once wrote of Christopher Columbus that "He discovered no island or sea as lonely as himself."

How different for those who trust God!

David wrote, "When You, God, went out before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness ... You provided for the poor!"

The writer of Hebrews echoed those words when he wrote, "I will never leave you nor ever forsake you.."

King Nebuchadnezzar refused to hear the testimony of three young men. He bound them and threw them into a fiery furnace.

In amazement, when he looked into the furnace he did not see three men, but four: unharmed and unbound. He shouted, "Servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" God went before them, protected them and rescued them.

On one occasion the disciples of Jesus were frightened by the winds and the waves that were threatening them. They were in a little boat with little hope. Then Jesus appeared and said, "Take courage. Don't be afraid. It is I!" He went to them, calmed their fears and then said, "You of little faith. Why did you doubt?"

A Psalmist was traveling through a deep valley with dark shadows. He was filled with great fear as he faced the "unknown." Yet, he was able to say, "I will fear no evil, for You are with me. Your rod and Your staff will comfort me!" He trusted God because He never abandoned Him.

The Lord always goes before us to protect us. He will provide for everything we need now and through eternity.

One night before climbing into bed, Brad knelt with his mother to pray. "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray Thee Lord, my soul to keep; if I should die before I wake..." There was a long pause and suddenly he stopped praying.

"Go on," said his mother to encourage him.

"I can't," he cried and ran from the room.

A few moments later he returned and finished the prayer, "I pray Thee Lord my soul to take."

"What happened?" his Mother asked.

"Well," he confessed, "just before we knelt to pray, I went into James' room and took all of his toy soldiers and hid them. Then I hid his tanks, cannons and trucks so he couldn't see them. And after I started to pray I had to stop and make everything right because I knew that God wouldn't hear me."

Many times we pray and get no answers. Often we think that God is not willing to hear us or unable to help us. But that is not true.

We cannot knowingly have sin in our hearts and lives and go to God and expect Him to answer our prayers. If we expect God to hear and answer our prayers we must make things right first.

Said the Psalmist, "if I had cherished sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened." It is only when we willingly confess and forsake our sins that we can expect God to answer our prayers. It may be time to stop in the middle of a prayer, right some wrongs and then pray.

Aaron may not be in post season

Aaron Judge, still nursing a right calf strain, was left off the New York Yankees' roster for the best-of-five American League Division Series against the Tampa Bay Rays that begins Saturday night.

The decision was not a surprise. Judge was also left off the roster for the Wild Card Series, when the Yankees swept the Boston Red Sox earlier this week.

The Yankees star right fielder finished the season on the injured list after leaving a Sept. 16 game with the injury.

Judge spent Friday taking various steps toward a return.

In front of reporters, he took batting practice at Tropicana Field during the Yankees' workout. Earlier in the day at George M. Steinbrenner Field, the club's spring training stadium in Tampa, he took live batting practice and ran, Yankees manager Aaron Boone said.

238 volunteers get rid of trash

Recently 238 volunteers joined San Joaquin County's 27th Annual Coastal Cleanup Day, removing an estimated 1,500 pounds of trash and debris from over 15 miles of land and waterways.

Cleanup sites included Lodi Lake, American Legion Park, the Calaveras River Bridge at Pacific Avenue, McHenry Recreation Area, Mosher Slough, the San Joaquin River, and Edgar Thoming Park in Tracy. Participants represented high schools from across the County, Girl Scout troops, college clubs, and San Joaquin County partners—making this year's cleanup a true countywide effort.

"It is inspiring to see so many residents come together to care for the parks, waterways and natural spaces that make San Joaquin County such a special place to live," said San Joaquin County Board of Supervisors Chair Sonny Dhaliwal. "The dedication of our volunteers shows that when our community works together, we can make a meaningful difference in protecting our environment for generations to come."

Organizers noted that several sites appeared cleaner than in past years—an encouraging sign that ongoing cleanup efforts are having a lasting impact. Looking ahead, future events may expand to new locations to build on this progress.

Volunteers were treated to T-shirts thanks to the generous support of Condor Earth Technologies, Kleinfelder, Tom Mayo Construction, Cen Cal Glass, the Port of Stockton, MRPE, and R&F Engineering. The event was made possible through partnerships with the City of Stockton, City of Tracy, City of Lodi, the Sierra Club at University of the Pacific, Restore the Delta, and the Port of Stockton. Niagara Water donated bottled water for participants, and Republic Services provided dumpsters to collect waste.

"The success of Coastal Cleanup Day is a direct reflection of the commitment of our volunteers and community partners," said San Joaquin County Public Works Director Najee Zarif. "Removing 1,500 pounds of debris from our local waterways and public spaces is a tremendous accomplishment, and we are grateful to everyone who gave their time and energy to make this event possible."

Supes pledge fight against mussels

The Board of Supervisors Ad Hoc Golden Mussels Committee took experts on the water for a firsthand look at the threat in an effort to sound the alarm and garner additional regional and national support in the fight against golden mussels in the Delta.

"Golden mussels are here to stay. There's no eliminating the threat, only managing it," said First District Supervisor Mario Gardea. "We need all of our State and Federal partners to understand the severity of this issue and what is at stake for San Joaquin County. Having experts here, seeing the mussels and the infrastructure they threaten, gives us an opportunity to grow the partnerships we need to protect our water systems, our agricultural economy and the Delta."

The Western Regional Panel on Aquatic Nuisance Species brings together state, provincial, federal, tribal, non-governmental, academic, and industry representatives working to limit the spread and impacts of aquatic nuisance species throughout western North America and Canada. Members were in Sacramento this week for the group's annual meeting hosted by the California Department of Fish and Wildlife before traveling to San Joaquin County for the Delta tour.

"This is an opportunity to bring experts from across the West into the Delta to see firsthand the challenges we face with aquatic invasive species," said Second District Supervisor Paul Canepa. "The Port of Stockton is at the center of this threat. Bringing scientists, academics, and water and policy leaders together allows us to better understand the impacts, strengthen partnerships, and work together to find resources and solutions."

The tour launched at Buckley Cove in Stockton and included a firsthand look at the cleaning of the Smith Canal gates, golden mussels at the Port of Stockton and additional locations where the species can be

Every bid represented an investment in young people. Funds raised through the 9/9 for #99 Auction help ALL RISE provide free educational and leadership opportunities for youth, encourage a love of reading through Aaron's Book Club, invest directly in communities through our Mini-Grant program, provide scholarships to graduating students, and create meaningful experiences that bring young people together to learn, grow, and lead. These programs allow us to reach children, families, educators, schools, and community organizations while continuing our mission.

Among this year's standout experiences were the opportunity to attend batting practice at Yankee Stadium and meet a New York Yankee, enjoy a game from a private suite with a special appearance by a member of the Steinbrenner family, experience Spring Training in Tampa, and go behind the scenes with the YES Network broadcast team at the Stadium. Beyond the ballpark, bidders could also enjoy a stay at Hotel Edison in the heart of New York City, a dining experience at TAO, and premier ticket to a Broadway show.

Collectors also had plenty to bid on, including Aaron Judge game-used and autographed equipment, player-issued cleats, jerseys, bats, and special-edition bobbleheads. The auction extended well beyond No. 99, with memorabilia signed by some of baseball and football's biggest names.

Thank you to YES Network, our generous donors, and everyone who placed a bid. Together, you turned unforgettable experiences and treasured memorabilia into opportunities for children and youth.

Linda Olson ...

4th generation rancher
named 2026 Cowbelle

The San Joaquin-Stanislous CattleWomen selected Linda Olson as the 2026 Cowbelle of the Year last week. She was given an engraved cowbell and a sterling silver pendant to celebrate her hard work. The award recognizes an outstanding member who dedicates significant time and effort to promoting the beef industry.

Mrs. Olson has been a member of the Unit for four years. During that time, she has promoted beef by doing classroom presentations, attending local farm days, reading farm books in classrooms, and presenting at AgVenture field trips. Often, she arrives at an event with a live calf for children to touch and feed. She is eager to teach all ages about beef and how the cattle industry impacts our daily lives.

Mrs. Olson is a fourth-generation Livermore rancher who grew up herding sheep and cattle on foot in the Altamont Hills. She raised, showed, and sold Hereford cattle and Suffolk sheep as a 4-H and FFA member. Her family still raise Herford/Black Angus cattle, and she annually helps her brothers with branding on the high Altamont Hills.

Mrs. Olson has lived in Burson for more than 30 years with her husband Bruce and her two sons and a daughter. She is very involved with the Calaveras County Fair, serving on the Junior Livestock Auction Committee. In addition, she is active in her local Catholic church, where she serves on the finance and women's committee and as a Eucharistic Minister.

Mrs. Olson and 31 other 2026 CowBelles throughout California will gather for a recognition luncheon during the California CattleWomen's State Convention in Reno, Nevada, in early December. There are about 1,800 CattleWomen in California, and the San Joaquin-Stanislous CattleWomen's Unit has 47 members and is 74 years old.

More about ...

Mussels

observed from land and water.

Golden mussels were first discovered in the Delta at the Port of Stockton in 2024. The aggressive spread of the mollusk can clog water pipes and irrigation systems impacting flood control and creating widespread damage to the agricultural economy and environment. The Delta is particularly vulnerable because of its extensive network of waterways and its importance to California's water supply, agriculture, recreation, and natural ecosystems.

Big bucks for Halloween

Halloween is a major spending occasion: Americans are expected to spend $13.5 billion on it this year, including $920 million on pet costumes alone, according to the National Retail Federation.

Much of that spending goes to costumes worn for a single night. Kids outgrow them by next year, adults rarely wear the same one twice, and most costumes are made from synthetic or mixed materials that can be difficult to recycle. California has a new law aimed at keeping clothes out of landfills, but its statewide collection system is years away. So on Nov. 1, most of those costumes head to the trash.

NEW HOGAN RESERVOIR
Current conditions: New Hogan is very warm, with the latest report estimating water around 84F. The current pattern is early morning and evening fishing, with the deeper water becoming important during the daytime.

- Striped bass
- Look for bait along the old river channel
 - Downline live bait or troll deeper water
 - Try 3/4-oz spoons/slabs when bait is showing
 - Concentrate around 25-50+ ft, depending on your sonar

Approximate GPS starting areas:

- New Hogan dam/central basin: 38.182' N, 120.7940 W
- Calaveras River arm: 38.2050 N, 120.806' W

Upper river-channel area: 38.225' N, 120.8170 W
These are starting coordinates, not guaranteed fish locations-use your sonar and adjust for the current lake level.

- Largemouth bass
- The heat is pushing bass toward deeper structure after the morning bite.
- Try:
- Points
 - Rock walls
 - Brush
 - Creek channels
 - 12-25 ft after sunrise

- Good choices:
- Drop-shot
 - Carolina rig
 - Deep crankbait
 - Creature bait
 - Topwater at dawn

Catfish

This is a good warm-water option.

Try 20-30 ft, particularly around deeper holes and channel edges. Cut bait/shad and punch bait are appropriate approaches.

CAMANCHE RESERVOIR
From Hogan, I'd put Camanche high on the list for another Central Valley trip.

- Targets
- Largemouth bass
 - Spotted bass
 - Catfish
 - Trout when conditions/stocking line up

Starting GPS areas:

- North arm: 38.2550 N, 120.9990 W
- South arm: 38.2080 N, 120.9750 W
- Main-lake structure: 38.2180 N, 120.9300 W

Fish early, then move deeper as the sun climbs.

NEW MELONES
New Melones is currently around 64 % full, according to the latest Central Valley water report.

Bass

- Look for:
- Main-lake points
 - Rocky banks
 - Creek channels

GPS points:

- Tuttletown/main lake: 37.993- N, 120.523- W
- Parrotts Ferry area: 37.965- N, 120.5150 W
- Stanislaus arm: 38.020- N, 120.4750 W

CALIFORNIA DELTA
This is where I'd shift if you're specifically chasing stripers. The latest September 18 report has the Delta around 84°F, with the best fishing windows concentrated around dawn and dusk. CDFW notes that threadfin shad, sardines, anchovies, bloodworms and pile worms are commonly used for Delta striped bass.

Bear enjoys feast of fresh-baked bread

Sept. 30 (UPI) — A hungry bear barged into a Colorado farmers market and gorged itself on fresh-baked bread before being chased off by authorities.

Witnesses captured video when the bear showed up to the Aspen Saturday Market during setup time and helped itself to baked goods from the Louis Swiss booth.

Colorado Parks and Wildlife spokesperson Joey Livingston said Aspen police hazed the bear while a CPW officer rushed to the scene.

The hungry bruin climbed a nearby tree and eventually left the area on its own.

Officials said extreme drought conditions have caused a record number of bear encounters this year due to a shortage of natural food sources. The animals are especially active currently as they pack on the pounds for their winter hibernation.

Cops discover slowest moving ‘fugitive’

Sept. 28 (UPI) — A Colorado sheriffs office released video from a pursuit involving a nearly 100-pound Salucata tortoise that attempted the “world’s slowest escape.”

The Jefferson County Sheriffs Office said on social media that an animal control officer was dispatched Aug. 31 on a report of a large tortoise on the loose in Littleton.

The tortoise, named Laird, weighed just under 100 pounds and had escaped from a fenced yard “with big travel plans and absolutely no sense of urgency,” the post said.

“Lard’s owner was on scene, but efforts to negotiate a voluntary return were unsuccessful,” officials wrote. “Home was in one direction. Lard preferred the other.

The animal control officer and a helpful bystander teamed up to lift and carry Lard home.

The sheriffs office joked that Lard had become a new local “shellebrity.”

Dad and 3-year-old set record

Sept. 28 (UPI) — Serial Guinness World Record-breaker David Rush teamed up with his 3-year-old daughter to break a record for jumping through a hula hoop.

Rush, who has previously broken records with his older children, said his daughter, Felicity, recently asked if she could have a record of her own.

“She has been my shadow during training sessions for years,” Rush wrote online. “She has tried keepy-uppy, bouncing pencils in sups, hungry hungry hippos blind, stacking toilet paper, and even flipping cups, which she got shockingly good at. But none of those were close to a world standard.”

The father-daughter duo landed on attempting the most passes through a back-spun hoop in thirty seconds, which stood at 8 passes.

Rush said practice sessions were limited to when Felicity was in the mood.

“Here is the thing about resilience: it is not something you lecture a toddler about. When ever she wanted to try we did, when ever she wanted to stop we did,” he said.

After multiple practice sessions, the duo made their official attempt and Felicity managed to pass through the hoop 10 times — but one of the passes was disqualified because the hoop did not roll the entire required distance.

Firefighters help trapped deer

Sept. 28 (UPI) — Firefighters in New Jersey ventured out into stormy weather to rescue a deer stuck between the bars of a metal fence.

The Middletown Township Fire Company posted photos to social media showing its Company No. 1 crew working together with the Old Village Fire Company to saw through the fence to remove bars and free the small “Even the deer have had enough of this Nor’Easter,” the post said. “While the rest of us are dealing with rain, wind, and flooding, this little doe decided to add getting stuck in a fence to the list of her problems today.”

The deer was not injured and was able to run away from the scene, firefighters said.

Grandma gamer sets elder record

Sept. 24 (UPI) — A gamer grandma from Scotland-earned a Guinness World Record as the oldest female Fortnite streamer on Twitch at the age of 78.

Cath Bowie, who has been livestreaming her gaming sessions on the website for 9 years as grumpygran48, said she was “instantly intrigued” when she saw her grandson playing Fortnite in 2017.

“Nearly nine years later I am still playing it, still absolutly loving it and although still growing older I have never made my age a deterrent,” she told Guinness World Records. “Although I have tried several other games I have never found the excitement that I get from Fortnite. I call myself a ‘Fortniter more than a gamer.’”

Bowie, who turned 78 on Sept. 1, is featured in the Guirness World Records Gamer’s Edition 2027 book. “Being in the Guinness World Records Gamer’s Edition 2027 always felt like a distant goal — something on my wish list that I never really thought I would achieve,” she said. “So to have achieved this honor means a great deal.”

Fat bears ready to display talents

Sept. 24 (UPI) -- Voting is currently underway for Fat Bear Week, Katmai National Park’s annual celebration of Bear beauty in Alaska.

Fat Bear Week, which started in 2014, chronicles the seasonal body transformations of the park’s brown bears as they pack on the pounds for winter.

Last year’s winner, 32 Chunk, is among the competitors in this week’s bracket, which will end on shortly.

This year’s bracket features 16 bears, an increase from the usual 12, with competitors including 89 Backpack, 151 Walker, 164 Bucky, 903 Gully, 284 Electra, 131 Marshmallow, 428 Studious and unnamed bears 132, 610, 806, 901, 620, 694, 909 and 910.
